

MARKET TROUBLE OF SOUTHWEST

Stockmen Discuss Their Problems in Meeting at Denver, Colo.

Denver, Colo., Sept. 15.—Consideration is being given to means of improving marketing conditions and formulating protests against methods employed by the meat packing industry, in a meeting of prominent stockmen of the southwest here today. It is a conference of the marketing committee of the National Livestock association with leading shippers.

Among those to attend the conference are: W. T. Pryor, San Antonio, Texas; E. C. Lassiter, Dwight, B. Head, Phoenix, Ariz., president of the National Livestock association; J. W. D. B. Kendrick, of Wyoming; E. L. Burk, of Omaha, and E. C. Hall, chief of the bureau of marketing, department of agriculture, Washington, D. C.

It is expected resolutions will be adopted urging congress to continue hearings held recently in Washington to determine whether the packers control prices and marketing conditions.

MARSHALL NOW IS CANDIDATE

Vice President Is Officially Notified of Nomination By Democrats.

Run," and now had "turned his back on the Holy Land." He predicted that the issues put forward by the Republicans would not be accepted as such by the people in the present abnormal year, adding: "You cannot invent a schism in the tariff nor a schism in the tariff trust."

Who Is Hughes's Partner?
"In my opinion," said Mr. Marshall, "the average American wants to know who is in the partnership with candidate Hughes in this firm Americanism." Does the firm consist of Hughes and Roosevelt, of Hughes and Hohenlocher, or of Hughes's surviving partner of the firm of Hughes and Hohenlocher?

Glynn's Notification Speech.
Martin H. Glynn, in his speech notifying Mr. Marshall of his nomination, summing up the results of the administration of president Wilson, replied in criticism of the administration and set forth the reasons why he believed Mr. Wilson and Mr. Marshall should be re-elected.

Protest Made Into Law.
Mr. Glynn described the Wilson administration as one "that in efficiency of service and in responsiveness to popular will has had no rival in this country in the last 50 years." Concerning the future of the nation, he said: "The historian of the future will say that into the laws of the nation were written not only the pledges of the Democratic platform but the pledges of the Republican platform that served public interest and fostered public welfare."

Cites Performances.
Asserting that Woodrow Wilson could be the next president and Mr. Marshall the next vice president, Mr. Glynn said that the most potent reason therefore lies in the great human appeal of the policy and performance of the administration in which you have been second in command.

Cites Issues of Campaign.
Concerning some of the issues of the

BAPTISTS WILL GO TO ALPINE

Complete Convention Here By Selecting Next Meeting Place.

The annual meeting of the El Paso Baptist association, which has been in session at the Highland Park Baptist church, will close this evening with a mass meeting by the R. Y. F. I. societies of the city. An adjournment was taken Friday afternoon, no session being held after the noon recess. The association selected Alpine for the next meeting place in September.

At the morning session the devotion service was in charge of Pender & Carter, a talk was given on the Sunday school by C. H. Riddle, a talk on religious literature was given by F. R. Ebel, an appeal for aid for the orphan's home was made by A. S. Hester and J. E. Quaid made a talk on the relief work for aged ministers.

Executive Board Named.
An executive board for the year was selected as follows: Rev. J. E. Williams, president; C. H. Riddle, secretary; L. N. Langston, C. J. Wade and C. V. Nafe, ex-officio members. The other members are: J. H. Nations, C. M. Newman, J. C. Byrd, L. B. Milligan, W. J. Bue, G. P. Patterson, Mary Griffith, Homer Wells, T. E. Smith, Bennett McCutcheon, Charles S. Pierce, E. L. Milligan, A. S. Howard.

campaign Mr. Glynn said: "In their search for an issue grasshoppers never hopped as our opponents have hopped, chameleons never changed their hues as our opponents have changed their cries in this campaign."

First, he said, the administration's opponents until they found William Americanism was that of Washington, Jefferson and Lincoln. Then they jumped to Mexico until they found the president's course was the same as that of Abraham Lincoln and president Taft in Mexican affairs. Then they criticized the Pershing expedition and the mobilization of troops on the border until they saw the people remembered president Taft's mobilization order in 1912 and knew armed forces of the United States had invaded Spanish and Mexican territory on ten occasions for offenses identical with which Villa committed against this country.

The Tariff Issue.
Then they dug up the tariff but dropped it when they saw the people remembered from bitter experience that what tariff might be, one hand it takes away with the other. Then they attacked the enactment of the railroad eight hour day, forgetting president Van Buren's law.

"Since Monday last," said the speaker, "they have been trying to make an issue out of the state election up in Maine as a regulatory issue, the policy and a forecast of national Republican victory. But this contention will not hold water."

The average majority in Maine in the last five national elections was 22,164 and yet on Monday the Republicans carry it by only 15,906. The same kind of a Republican victory would swing New York to Wilson by 250,000.

Says Hughes Vacillates.
"Then they make an issue out of 'presidential' vacillation. Vacillation the other name is the name of the present Republican candidate for president in sidestepping and pussy footing all around the issue. He was as bad as the man in the perplexities of the famous old railroad ditty of 'off again, on again, gone again, thine again.'"

"President Wilson or any other man has got to do some vacillating to keep up with the Republican nominee, the champion vacillator of the political arena."

The Country's Prosperous.
"The fact remains," said Mr. Glynn, "that under a Democratic president and a Democratic congress this country is enjoying the greatest prosperity in its existence. The business is here, the work is here, the money is here and no prophecy of our opponents can puff them away. Our banks are stacked with money, our mills are filled with orders, our farms revel in prosperity. The hum of this industry is better than all the war songs in the world."

GRAND JURY STILL MEETING; TO HAVE 3 SESSIONS A WEEK
The grand jury held another session Friday morning with only a few witnesses having been summoned. While no report has yet been made, it is believed that the body's work is nearing its conclusion.

It is expected that, until adjournment on Sept. 28, only two or three sessions a week will be held.

Recently the deceased had been living in Columbus, N. M., and was brought here for treatment, death following soon after. He was a native of Massachusetts and had no relatives in the southwest.

SHOT; IS RELEASED.
Francisco Flores was discharged by Judge Dan M. Jackson in the 11th district court, Friday, on a writ of habeas corpus, but was ordered sent back to the county jail to receive treatment for a wound in the leg. Flores was charged with the theft of an amount less than $50. He said he had been shot in the leg by a city detective.

CHARGES DISMISSED.
New York, Sept. 15.—The charges made by mayor John P. Mitchell against a number of Catholic priests, together with their counter accusations against police commissioner Arthur Woods, arising out of disclosures last summer of telephone wire tapping by the police were dismissed today by supreme court Justice Greenbaum.

DROPS PISTOL, NEGRO IS SHOT.
